

.../...

In the particular case under reference, the concerned statement was eventually issued as document A/HRC/S-1/NGO/5 and was placed on the OHCHR website together with other NGO statements. A footnote was then added to the document in which it was indicated that the text contained the statement that was to have been delivered orally by the organization concerned at the first special session, that it had been issued unedited and in the original language and that its contents were the sole responsibility of the author's.

I trust that the above clarifies the matter for you.

Yours sincerely

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Eric Tistouet', with a long horizontal line extending to the right across the signature.

Eric Tistouet

Secretary of the Human Rights Council

A long, thin, curved line drawn in black ink, starting from the left and curving upwards towards the right, located below the signature block.