

AAJLJ and IAJLJ 2007 INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Protecting Human Rights and Democratic Values in an Age of Terrorism

Washington, DC

Thursday March 22- Sunday March 25, 2007

Register now for the 2007 American Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists (AAJLJ) & International Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists (IAJLJ) International Conference. Join a distinguished group of jurists, scholars and lawyers from the United States, Israel, Canada and other countries to discuss and debate one of the major challenges of our time: how to protect human rights, democratic values and the rule of law in a post-9/11 world.

Topics include:

Balancing Civil Liberties and Security

The Ethics and Law of War

Democracies in an Age of Terrorism-Our Experiences and Vulnerabilities

Battling Terrorism with Lawsuits

Speakers include: Aharon Barak, President of the Supreme Court of Israel (retired)

Irwin Cotler, former Minister of Justice of Canada

Seth Waxman, former Solicitor General of the United States

Professor Ruth Wedgwood, Johns Hopkins University

Nathan Lewin, distinguished Supreme Court advocate

Dean Claudio Grossman, American University Washington College of Law

Professor Anne Bayefsky, Touro College Law Center

Stanley Sporkin, former Fed. District Court Judge and Gen. Counsel to the CIA

Professor Emanuel Gross, Haifa University

During the Conference, on March 22nd at 6:30 pm the AAJLJ will present its 2007 Pursuit of Justice Award to President Barak in a ceremony at the United States Supreme Court. The presentation will be made by Associate Justice Antonin Scalia.

This outstanding Conference offers you the opportunity to engage one of the most critical issues of our time with some of the world's leading legal minds.
